JONES-ROBINSON SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

OVERVIEW:

The Jones-Robinson Scholarship was created to honor the five children that perished in the Sommerset Circle fire of 1990 in Madison, Wisconsin. The children, who were African-American, came from a low-income single parent household. Following this tragedy, The Sable Flames, Inc., African-American Firefighters of the Madison

Fire Department, created a scholarship fund in the children's honor. The scholarship is designed for those of a similar socioeconomic background who are aspiring to improve their lives through higher education.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Each applicant should be:

1. Madison-area resident (Dane county)
2. Low-Income (based on family size and annual income)
3. High School Graduate or comparable GED
4. Overall GPA of 2.5
5. Accepted and enrolled into a degree program at an accredited College, University or Technical-College.

SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES:

1. This scholarship application is due: Monday July 10th, 2023.
2. Each application is eligible for one scholarship per academic school year.
3. Awards will be granted directly to the bursar's office of the educational institution.
4. Each scholarship will be $1,000.
5. Each scholarship application must be submitted electronically to:
